SUMMA — 1965

Academy of Our Lady

Spalding Institute

Peoria, Illinois

seeking new horizons

SPALDING

Since 1898 when Bishop John Lancaster Spalding founded his high school for boys, Spalding Institute has been dedicated to the progressive Catholic education of young men.

This spirit of progress was first introduced to Spalding by the brothers of the Society of Mary, who were renowned for their discipline and high academic standards.

In 1933, the Benedictine Fathers took over the administration of the school, and under them Spalding made great educational strides. The Benedictines began an extensive building program which reached its fulfillment with the completion of the Schlarman Annex which added thirteen classrooms to the school.

In 1950, the Clerics of Saint Viator began teaching at Spalding. Traditionally a progressive order, the Viatorians introduced new teaching methods and continued the various building projects. In 1953, the gymnasium was completed.

Today, Spalding Institute through a streamlined curriculum which includes four years of mathematics and three of science, and through dedication to the ideals of Catholic education has become one of the most highly regarded schools in the state, providing a ground work for the dreams and aspirations of the young men passing through its doors.

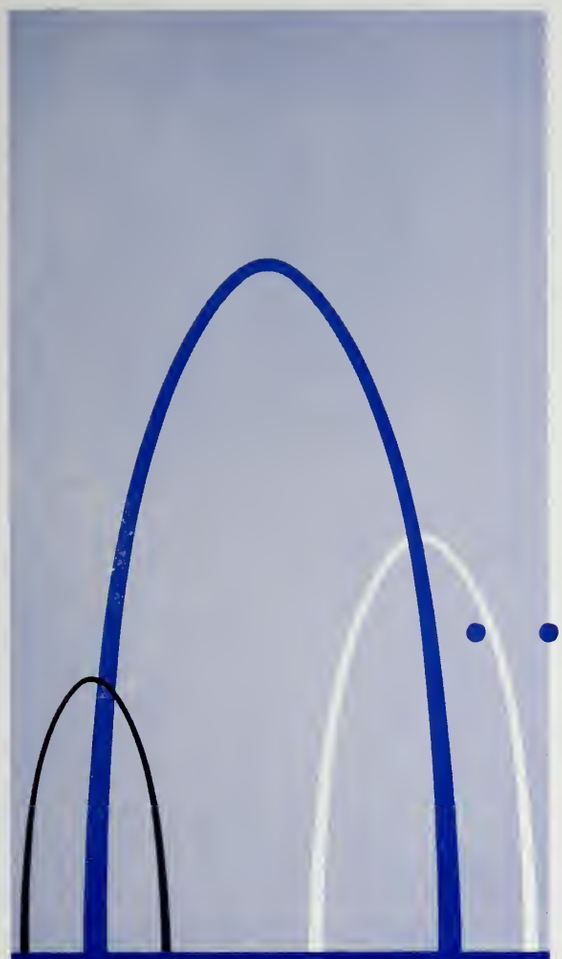
ACADEMY

On April 19, 1863, seven Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondolet arrived in Peoria for the purpose of starting a select boarding and day school for young women. The Sisters first occupied a house on Jefferson Avenue. The next location occupied by the Sisters was on Madison Avenue. It was here that the Sisters established the first academy for the young ladies of Peoria.

In 1874 the Academy moved to its present site near St. Mary's Cathedral. At that time the enrollment consisted of 80 students which has since increased to 800 students. The first major expansion occurred in 1929 with the construction of the Edmund Dunne Hall, the gymnasium, and the auditorium. More recently other changes and new contributions and additions have been made at the Academy. Among them are two new science labs, remodeled foods and chemistry labs, a completely modernized language lab, a new business machines room, as well as a new library addition.

As the Academy students move forward to new vistas of knowledge, they will always be grateful to the dedicated Sisters whose untiring efforts inspired them to seek new and better horizons.

"I have a dream . . ." Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in the course of one of the most moving speeches of our time, expresses his hope for a new America free from all traces of bigotry and hate.



. . . dedication

". . . , Wherever you are,

Work for your Soul's sake,

That all the clay of you, all the dross of you,

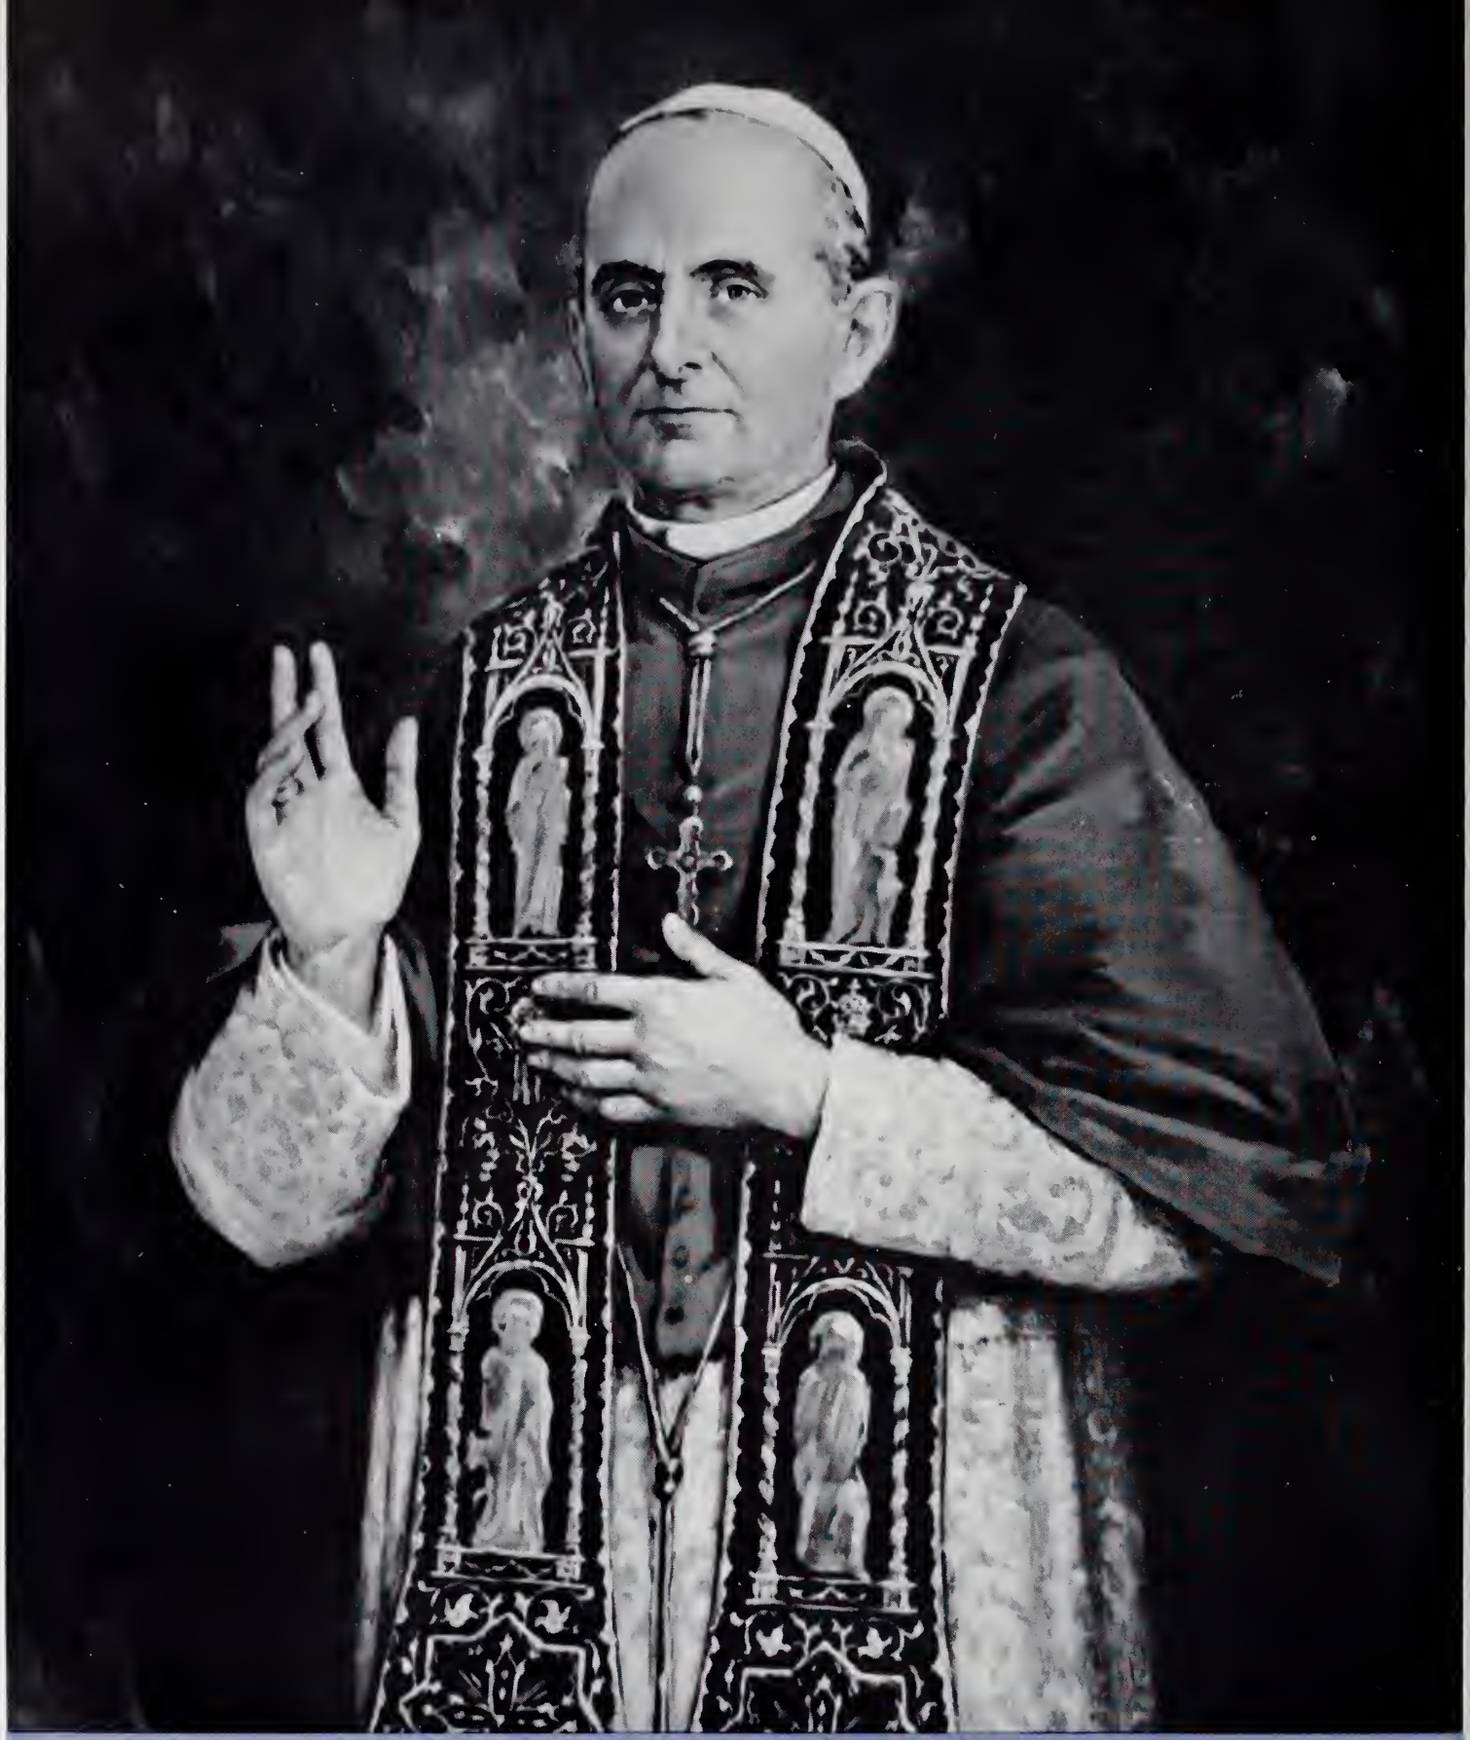
May yield to the fire of you,

Till the fire is nothing but light . . .

Nothing but light!"

— Dedicated to the ideals and goals of the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

In a display of moral strength, 250,000 Americans, both Negro and white, march on Washington, D.C. to symbolize their hope of equal rights for all men.



POPE PAUL VI

It has been the plan of action of Pope Paul VI to strive for higher goals in social, political, and spiritual spheres. He has journeyed to the Eucharistic Congress in India to instill international good will and has made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land to meet the Greek Orthodox Patriarch for the sake of the ecumenical movement. He has steadfastly furthered the revitalizing reforms of Pope John XXIII within the "new people of God" so that all might live a deeper and more meaningful faith. Pope Paul's leadership should prove an inspiration to all of us who have chosen to attain such noble goals.

BISHOP J. B. FRANZ

Since his installation on November 4, 1959, Bishop John B. Franz has been a progressive leader in the Peoria area in social and intellectual fields as well as religious. Through his example, he has shown the students of Spalding Institute and the Academy of Our Lady the true meaning of dedication to Christ and has become a source of inspiration to all young people who are seeking new goals to conquer and new horizons to discover.

Sad yet happy, apprehensive yet optimistic — these seem to be the feelings exhibited by the Seniors as they begin their last year in high school.

A promising school year begins

Monsignor Reidy celebrates the annual Thanksgiving Mass before the combined student bodies of Spalding and the Academy.

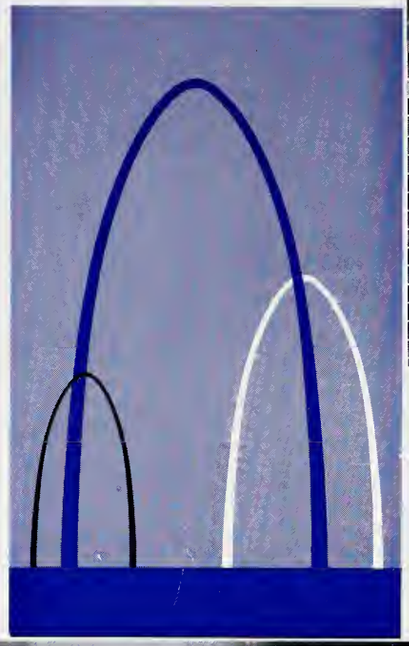
After a hectic first day of school, the freshmen gather in the convent yard to relax for a few moments and meet new friends.

Brian Finn makes the first of many stops at the locker which he will occupy during the school year.

Sister Thomas Maureen and Sister Frances Lawrence handle the rush of students seeking books on the opening day of school.

Rich in broadening experiences.

One of the "big" events for the Freshmen each year is the annual Christmas dance.



Father Reardon demonstrates the wonder — and the fun — of chemistry to his General Science class.

Bob Wiltz ponders the mysteries of Elementary Mathematical Analysis while he waits for his "poly sci" class at 2:12.

A moment of prayer in a busy life gives solace to an Academy girl.

"Snow blow, winter go!" is the dominant thought of the jug "slaves" as they shovel away a mountain of snow from Spalding's sidewalk.

seeking new horizons

The theme of the 1965 SUMMA is SEEKING NEW HORIZONS. When one thinks of a horizon, one usually thinks of a cloudless blue sky or a radiant sunset. One looks into such a sky and thinks of his future life.

We have chosen this theme because of the way it represents the ambitions of the students of the Academy of Our Lady and Spalding Institute. We the students, through our studies, our organizations, our activities, and our prayers are seeking new and better horizons that will lead us to eternal happiness — God.

In seeking new horizons, we must encounter new experiences which are exemplified in the arches on the cover and on the division pages.

academics

"Our progress as a nation can be no swifter than our progress in education. Our requirements for world leadership, our hopes for economic growth and the demands of citizenship itself in an era such as this all require the maximum development of every young American's capacity."

—John F. Kennedy

Reality Attained Through Religion

The effect of revised religion courses on the students of the Academy and Spalding has been electrifying. Class participation through reports and an emphasis on positive theology have helped to enliven religion classes for students and make the ancient truths of the faith applicable in a world beset with new problems.

The Ecumenical Council has also served as the basis of inspiration for our students. The new emphasis on the liturgy has awakened all of its meaning to us, and brought us to a fuller understanding of the Mystical Body of which we are members.

Mary Fosco places her host in the ciborium, as her fellow classmates stand in line preparing to assist at Mass in the Academy Auditorium. Seniors and Juniors attend Mass every first Thursday and the Sophomores and Freshmen on the third Thursday.

Father Reardon helps Spalding's students make the Mass more significant in their lives with his sermon on the new liturgy.

Tom Raya assists as Father Lund offers Holy Mass. Academy girls and Spalding boys have the privilege of attending Mass every school day in the Spalding chapel.

Spalding students have a chance to unite themselves with God during the monthly celebration of Mass. These devotions instill greater sentiments of adoration and reverence throughout the whole school. Students participate as altar boys and chorus members while the rest of the student body sings and recites the liturgy.

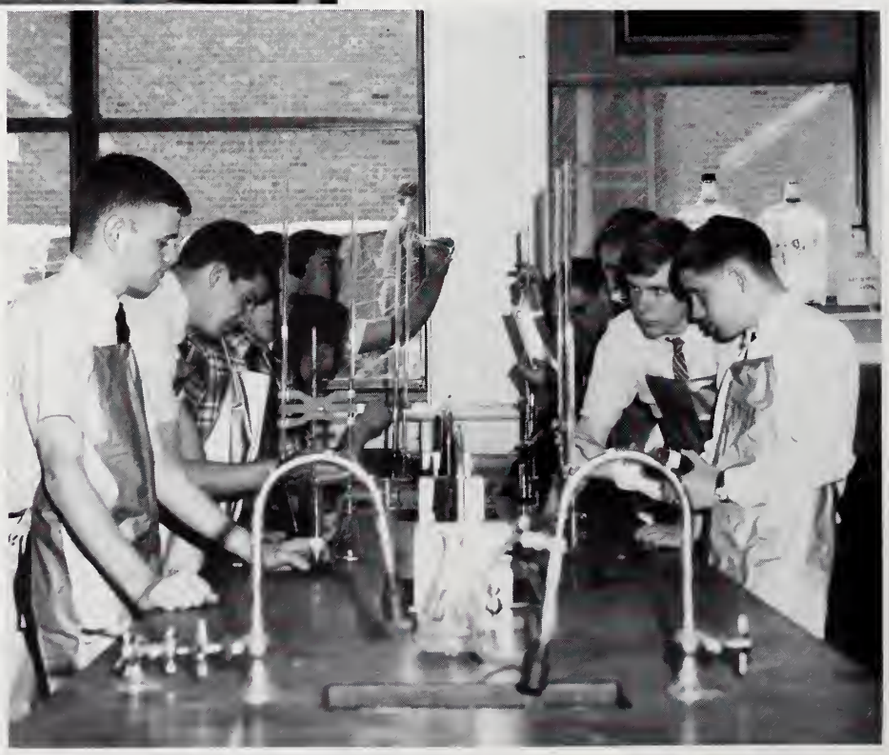
A realization of Christ's love for us was brought closer to the students of the Academy by the Junior and Sophomore Sodalists' portrayal of the passion and death of Christ.

Science Opens A World of Discovery

In this fast moving world of scientific and technological advances, the Academy and Spalding are doing their part to instruct students in the basic as well as the advanced sciences. The study of trigonometric functions, a filmstrip on the structure of a leaf or the preparation of hydrogen offers a challenge for the student today and may open the door to a future career in one of these fields.

These busybody sophs are prying into the private world of green algae, one of several simple organisms which they study in their lab.

Kathy Martin and Mary Jo Lehnhausen don't seem to mind the "hot and bother" of iodine sublimation. "We love our lab period," quoth they.



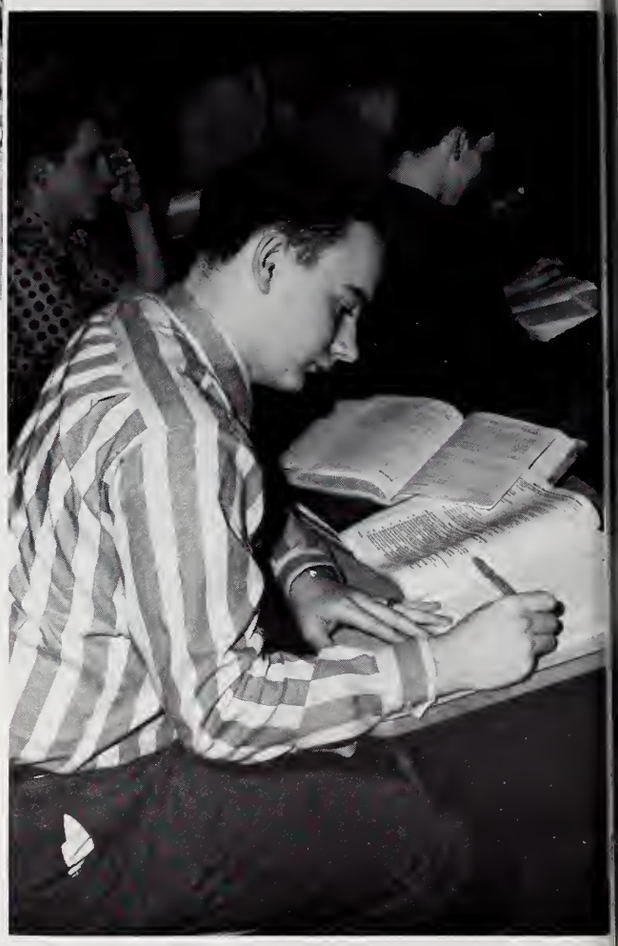
These junior chemistry students perfect titrating techniques in the chemistry lab.

P.S.S.C. Physics students Mike Curley, Terry Donahue, and Gilles Lon teen get acquainted with an oscilloscope in their study of the motion of charged particles.

Lynn Burgett explains the wonders of the closed circulatory system to her fellow physiology students Jean Ann Davis, Sherrie Soldati, and Pat Thomas.

Mr. Brookhart's classes are noted for their unusual approach to the study of history. John Marlin and Mike Machens demonstrate the construction of an English mud-and-wattle hut of the 13th century. In the background are the various implements of soldiering of that period.

Business and History



Bookkeeping requires much practice and outside work. Larry Curry is pictured here working in his guide book after Mr. Haley's lecture.

Jim Dalton and Larry Curry check with Mr. Haley on the proper entry of their income tax forms in a record book as part of their practical application of bookkeeping principles.

Students of the business machines class work busily at the various machines turning out assignments with precision and efficiency.

Fundamentals of a Modern Society

Under the direction of Sister Mary Gabriella, Head of the Business Department, and Mr. Ronald Haley, Chairman of the Department of Commercial Studies, the Academy and Spalding turn out competent and highly trained business men and women. All aspects of the business world are included in the curriculum from typing and business machines to consumer economics and business law.

The History Departments, under the direction of Sister Ann Regis and Mr. Gerald Brookhart aim to give students a basic understanding of the conditions which have combined to produce the civilization in which we live, along with a comprehensive knowledge of the history of our state and nation.

"J'entre dans la salle de classe." Sister David Louise greets her Senior French class at the begnning of the year in the Academy language lab.

Languages Provide Background for Understanding

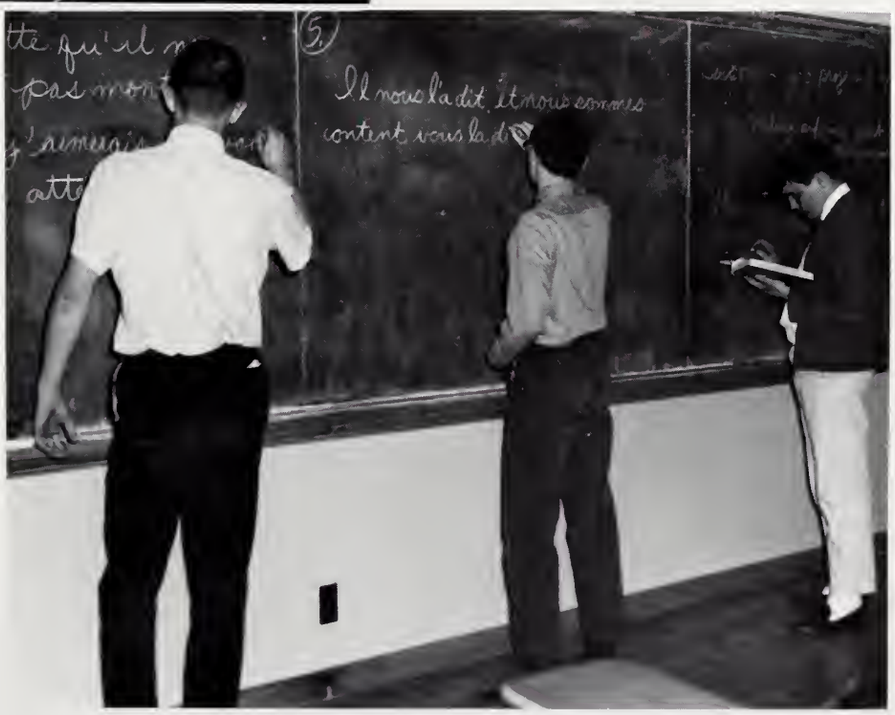
Members of this third year Latin class concentrate on their note-taking as Father Sweeney dictates passages from Ovid.

More and more the value of literature, combined with the polishing effect of perfect grammar was stressed in English classes both at Spalding and the Academy.

The classical study of foreign languages at both schools was supplemented by practical lab and discussion periods. The fine language departments endeavored to instill in their students a true appreciation of the part which foreign languages play in modern society.

Father Lund points out the difference between the "passe compose" and the "imparfait" to his Freshman French class.

Freshman Spanish students look right at home as they settle down to another period in Spalding's Spanish lab.



Mike Cowan, Dan O'Connor and Gilles Lonteen take their skills to the board before the critical eyes of a combined Senior-Sophomore French class.

Domestic and Fine Arts

"You won't have any excuse now for not knowing how to cook," says Sister Mary Timothy as she pins the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award on Keryl Lee.

The cooking students of today are the future homemakers of tomorrow. Under the excellent guidance of Sister Mary Blanche the seniors and juniors in Foods Class are instructed in the fundamentals of meal planning. Throughout the year the cooking students prepare refreshments for faculty teas and special occasions. Besides foods the Academy also offers clothing and family living classes.

While the Foods students are busy preparing meals the Sophomore Chorus is over in the choral room practicing for their next concert. Perfection in the art of singing is the main objective of the chorus.

Becky Conlon, Annette Gury, and Cheryl Bisiaux watch with interest as Catherine Coates gives a demonstration on kneading dough.

Sophomore Chorus

Beauty and Practicality

Under the direction of Father Raymund Novacek and Sister Mary Agnetta, the art programs at Spalding and the Academy strive to bring out the creative talents of the students along with developing a keen appreciation for art. Academy students have entered their works in many exhibits throughout the area meriting praise not only for their individual work but also for the entire art department.

Sister Mary Agnetta congratulates a very pleased Theresa McGowan on her entry in the art exhibit at the Heart of Illinois Fair.

organizations

"No amount of organization or new procedures can be effective without, or substitute for, high quality personnel in charge of their agencies. No other single step can accomplish as much."

—JOHN F. KENNEDY

Pat Lucas and Mary Maushard joyfully gave up many of their spare-time hours, along with other Academy girls, to help make the Christmas basket drive a success.

On their way to greet the members of the A.F.S. Panel are Student Council officers, Patty Jewell, President; Patty McShane, Vice-President; Mary Jo Willis, Treasurer; and Jeanne Mariani, Secretary.

Academy Student Council

With the passing of another year, the Academy Student Council, under the able direction of Sister Mary Agnetta, again looks back with pride at the success of its undertakings. As the representatives of the student body, the Council, seeking to better faculty - student relationships, sponsored a highly successful Teacher Appreciation Day. Other Council directed activities included a Halloween Barn Dance, the annual Christmas Food Basket Drive, a Freshman Welcome Day, a revision of the Council Constitution, and a sponsorship of the American Field Service Panel.

Caught on their way to the Mid-State Eight Student Council Meeting held at the Academy are Spalding's Council officers, Treasurer, Tom Lintz; Moderator, Father Novacek; Secretary, Tom Wake; Corresponding Secretary, Tim Gura; President, Jim Kelly, and Vice-President, Dave Broderic.

Spalding Student Council

Providing an effective link between the administration and the student body, this year's Student Council has completed another successful year. The Student Council is moderated by Father Raymund Novacek and through activities such as Homecoming, the Chocolate Drive, Crystal Ball, and the Christmas Basket Drive it has provided the students of Spalding with opportunities to participate in and contribute to the educational, social, and religious aspects of school life.

Steve Akers delivers his report on the Christmas Basket Drive at the weekly Student Council meeting.

This year 32 Seniors have been named to the National Honor Society. They are, first row: Nancy Powers, Kristy Burk, Sue Stambaugh, Pam Bourscheidt, Pauline Bozdech, Sue Hadank, Kathy Best, Mary Mueller; second row: Connie Prunch, Lynn Caragher, Bonnie Bailey, Patty McShane, Pat Jewell, Cathy Myers, Janice Leibel, Jan Armstrong; third row: Sue Peplow, Carolyn Voss, Mary Ann Hoecker, Nancy Gilinsky, Eileen Gramlich, Pat Anton, Pam Raya, Kathy Bannon; fourth row: Mary Morrow, Debbie Smith, Toni Saccenti, Nancy Woods, Caryl Risen, Margie McNamee, Mary Jo Lehnhausen, and Maureen McNamara.

Honor Societies

The members of the National Honor Society of the Academy and Spalding combine the qualities of scholarship, character, and leadership in serving their school and community.

The major project undertaken by the Academy chapter of the National Honor Society was the remodeling of the Guidance Office. They financed this endeavor through the proceeds they received from sponsoring a movie.

Both societies have been seen ushering at many of the social functions and have been participants in community drives.

In their leisure time, these National Honor Society members, Nancy Gilinsky, Pam Raya, and Polly Bozdech, arrange the many college catalogs in the Guidance Office into various groups for easy reference.

The hard working officers of the Academy National Honor Society are Kathy Best, Secretary; Jan Armstrong, Vice-President; Cathy Myers, President; and Sue Peplow, Treasurer.

Maintaining a better than "B" average has qualified these Spalding men to be members of the National Honor Society. They are, first row: Steve Ochs, Jack Maggio, Jerry Worrick, Bob Wiltz, Terry Trantina, Mark Vogel, Mike Ward, and John Riter; second row: Jim Kelly, Tom Gilfillan, Frank Radosevich, Randy Irion, Ken Happach, Jim Markosky, Mike Geskey, Ivan Schraeder, Tom Vachon, Terry Pitzen, Steve Linsley, Tim Gura, Pat White, and Tom Wake. Absent from the picture is Rick Ward.

As one of their duties as members of the National Honor Society, Pat White and Tim Gura pass out music sheets before First Friday Mass.

Making sure that class panels are in order before they go to the printer are this year's SUMMA editors and moderators. They are: Sister Thomas Maureen, Nancy Woods, Steve Ochs, Nancy Powers, Father Leo Cooper, and Jim Joyce.

SUMMA

In 1963 the SUMMA looked back over the last century. In 1964 it looked forward to the future. In the 1965 SUMMA we have tried to explain and display, in a small way, the character of the students of Spalding and the Academy, a character built upon great traditions, looking to the promising future. We feel our theme Seeking New Horizons exemplifies this character — a constant striving for success and perfection.

We, the staff, under the direction of Sister Thomas Maureen, C.S.J., and Father Leo Cooper, C.S.V., hope that we have provided you, the students, with a permanent record of the 1965 school year that you will cherish and hope that we have influenced you in some small way to seek new and greater horizons in all fields of life which you enter.

Checking the proofs for the next edition of VIEWPOINT, are members of the staff: Pat McDermott, Margie McNamee, Denese Robb, Jan Armstrong, Nancy Gilinsky, Mary Mueller, Debbie Smith, and Pat Bailey. Missing from the picture is Denise Donnelly.

Before putting final touches on Sue Mette's VIEWPOINT poster, Jeanne Peters stops to admire Susie Bunce's sketches for the inside pages.

Pictures, a new feature this year for VIEWPOINT, are being approved by Georgia Novotny, Editor; Martha Bruemmer, Assistant Editor; and Sister Martha Mary, moderator.

VIEWPOINT

The VIEWPOINT, now in its second year of publication, has again proven its excellence in the three editions published this year. Under the direction of Sister Martha Mary, short stories, essays and poems, written by Academy students were compiled into a superb literary magazine.

INSTITUTE

Senior members of the INSTITUTE have assisted the editors in turning out an excellent news magazine. They are: Jim Kelly, Rick Blanc, Tom Wake, Tom Lintz, Mark Maloof, Bob Eaton, Jerry Tigue, Mike Geskey, Mike Carroll, Jim Blaschek, Bob May, Jerry Worrick, Terry Trantina, Mike Ward, Tom Weinzerl, and Bob Wiltz.

Brother Houde and Brother Orban meet with senior editors, Tim Gura and Rick Ward and junior editors Tim Kelley and Ben Bladel, to discuss plans for the next issue.

The 1965 INSTITUTE staff has continued a tradition of providing a fine news magazine to the students of Spalding. The INSTITUTE is unique in that the students are responsible for its entire production, including the printing. Faculty moderators, Brothers Jerome Orban and Donald P. Houde, coordinate efforts as students contribute their talents in writing, photography, art, and printing.

The make-up crew handles the technical aspects of INSTITUTE production. Here Mike McKloskey and Dick Beltrimini prepare to burn a plate to be used on Spalding's off-set press.

Music Enriches The School Year

Under the direction of Sister Ellen James, C.S.J., the Academy Music Department has grown in stature and in size. The Music Department offers the Academy girls participation in the Girls' Chorus, the Sophomore Chorus, the Mixed Chorus, and the Academettes. The Mixed Chorus has, during the past year, won many awards and citations for its performances in choral festivals.

The Academettes, a group of well trained and extremely talented girls, represent the Academy at many social events.

Exhorting the altos to attain a richer tone quality is Mr. Farris as he directs the Mixed Chorus at the Christmas concert.

Mounting bus No. 2, members of the Mixed Chorus, Kathy Harris, Doug Smith, Sherrie Soldati, Jim McMahon, Steve Heinz, and Eileen Gramlich, prepare to return to Fontbonne for their command performance.

A good example of the ingenuity of Spalding musicians is the Rubicons who entertained the three lunch periods with their playing during the Student Council elections.

Band and Chorus

Although handicapped by a lack of size, the band provided Spalding and Academy students with fine music throughout the school year. Mr. Gene Farris welded the band into a spirited group which enlivened every pep rally and basketball game.

In addition to the band, Mr. Farris directed the Boys' Chorus. The chorus sang at First Friday Masses and enriched the school year with several beautiful concerts.

Kathy Bannon, the A.O.L. Sodality Prefect, personifies those virtues which a Sodality member admires. Her understanding of people and her great devotion to Marian ideals exemplify the Sodality motto, "To Jesus Through Mary."

The entire Academy joins Kathy Bannon in crowning Our Blessed Mother, Queen of the May, at a special Mass held in Our Lady's honor.

Caryl Risen explains the procedures of next week's meeting to the other Sodality group leaders, Eileen Gramlich, Debbie Smith, Sandy Seyller, Linda Gottschalk, Sheryl Laing, Cindy Neimeier, Jean Ann Davis, Michele McMorrow, Kay McDermott, Judy McMurray, Mary Hagemann, Margie McNamee, and Jeanne Mariani.

Academy Sodality

The purpose of the Sodality of Our Lady is to cultivate in its members a deep devotion, reverence, and filial love for the Blessed Virgin Mary. The organization intensifies spiritual training to promote personal sanctification and the exercise of apostolic work. The Sodality motto, "To Jesus Through Mary," emphasizes the way a Sodalist grows in friendship with Christ through intimate devotion to Mary.

The Sodality, under the expert guidance of Father Robert Hughes, Sister David Louise and Sister Gerald Joseph, has sponsored many worthwhile projects this year, some of which include the day of recollection which was called "A Day For Young Americans" and the money raising project entitled "Come As It May."

The Sodality continued its "Big Sister" program which was initiated last year. The annual Academy May Day ceremony was changed somewhat this year but not to the exclusion of its traditional beauty and the spiritual values gained from it.

Pontifical Crew

The Pontifical Crew is composed of a group of Spalding students who have been selected by the pastors of their respective parishes. Their duty is to assist the Bishop at Christmas Midnight Mass, Holy Week and Easter Services, Graduation, and Ordination ceremonies.

Sodality

"To lead all men to Christ" — This high aim of St. Paul has been chosen by the Sodality as its goal. The Sodality works to make the students of Spalding aware of their responsibility as Catholic men. Under the spiritual guidance of Father Fitzsimmons, the members of the Sodality of Our Lady strive for self- sanctification and the sanctification of others.

Lay Advisory Board

"Be of one mind towards one another." —St. Paul, 12-16 Romans. This theme is being carried out for Spalding Institute and the Academy of Our Lady by a Lay Advisory Board which has been lending a hand in the financial affairs of the school, but more important — is actively fostering a public understanding of the educational contributions of the two schools. The thirteen members are specialists in their fields, and their talents have lifted the principals' burden of problems such as maintenance and finance so that they can concentrate on education. In order to use the talents of the board members to the best advantage, seven committees were formed. They include public relations, physical property, finance, parish liaison, education, transportation, and a scholarship fund.

Mr. William Cleary, Mr. Gordon Hunt, Mr. Warner Stoughton, Mr. Grant St. Julian, Mr. W. G. Rowbatham, and Mr. Robert Lehnhausen review facts and figures concerning maintenance at a meeting of the Lay Advisory Board.

Mr. Robert Lehnhausen, Mr. Donald Vonachen, and Mr. Roger T. Kelley discuss the various features of the scholarship fund with Father White and Sister Thomas Marie.

Taking time out from their meeting, Mr. Harold Lintz, Mr. Harold Schafer, Mr. James Caragher, Dr. Charles Williams, and Mr. Charles Eliason are caught at an informal gathering in the Academy lounge.

Treasurer, Karen Larsen; Vice-President, Bonnie Bailey; Spiritual Treasurer, Maria Jimenez; Secretary, Kay Caragher; and President, Mary Mueller wave good-bye as they prepare to leave for the C.S.M.C. Convention at Notre Dame.

Catholic Students Missions Crusade

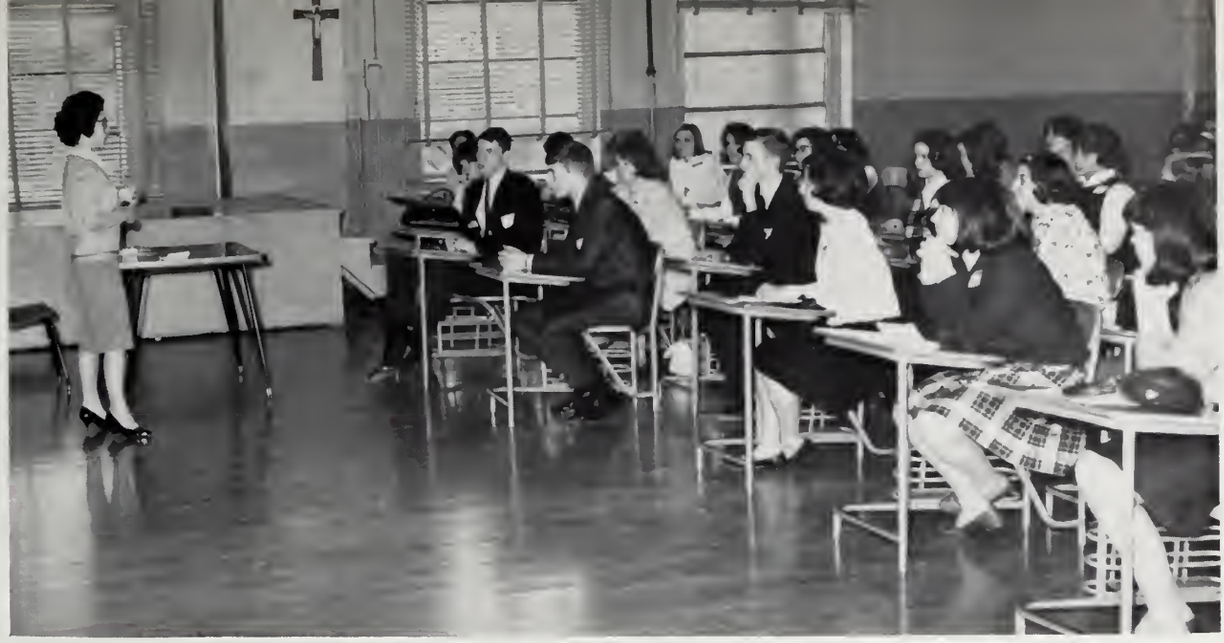
The officers and members of the CSMC have worked untiringly during the year to further an understanding and knowledge of the Lay Apostolate. The first of their activities included a Mexican fiesta which grossed $1000 for PAVLA. This event was followed by the annual Christmas mailbox. The climax of their efforts was achieved by sponsoring a Lay Apostolate Workshop for all the high school students of the Peoria Diocese. The different duties of PALVA, ICA, AID, and the Peace Corps were explained to all present.

Sister Ann Regis and Father Edmund Grzybowski supervised the planning of the workshop which fulfilled all expectations.

The Mission Study Club, under the expert guidance of Sister Ann Regis, discussed controversial books and events at their bi-monthly meetings.

This poster which decorated one of the lobbies at the Lay Missionary Workshop emphasizes the necessity of the youth of America to become actively involved in the apostolic work of the Church.

Fr. Steitz, Director of PAVLA for the Kansas City Archdiocese, was the keynote speaker of the C.S.M.C. Lay Missionary Workshop. His excellent and informative speech on the opportunities open for young Catholics in the field of lay action was the highlight of the workshop.



The challenging talks by members of PAVLA, the Peace Corps, and other agencies concerning themselves with social justice left many a student with the question "How can I serve?" prominent in his mind.

"Just a little bit higher on the left," says Mission Study Club Vice-President, Jane Heinz as Secretary, Audrey Sterling and President, Mary Ann Hoecker prepare a Lenten bulletin board.

The CSMC representatives turned mailmen at Christmas time to gain money for the missions. These "mailmen", Emmy Heintzman, Judy McMurray, and Kathy Burk deliver packages and letters to the girls during homeroom period every morning.

Mu Alpha Theta

Preparing a bulletin board concerning new math techniques are Vice President, Connie Prunch and President, Margie McNamee. Mu Alpha Theta, under the direction of Sister Mary Patricia, is an honor society which encourages mathematicians to take up careers in Math.

Under the quidance of Sister Agnes Josephine and Miss Haddigan the Academy Red Cross is one of the most active councils in the area. Besides participating in the enrollment drive, the Toys for Tots Drive, the Bicycle Safety Program, and giving Christmas parties for the mentally retarded children, the members perform vital services to the community by working in hospitals and other insitutions. This year the chapter was headed by Pres. Carolyn Voss, Vice Pres. Joan McCavitt, Sec. Cindy Maher, and Treas. Barbara Peters. The Academy Chapter has been recognized both locally and nationally by having some of its members sent to the Nebraska Leadership Camp and by having been represented on the American Red Cross Midwestern Area Youth Advisory Council.

French Club

Quelques membres du Cercle se preparant pour une assemblee. Vice President Joan Janovetz and President Mary Cannon plan the monthly meeting of Le Cercle Francais. Always ready with a helpful suggestion is the moderator, Sister Angelita Cyril. Secretary Pam Raya eagerly takes down the details. Through films and lectures, the culture of France is revealed to the members of the club.

Future Teachers Club

As members of the Future Teachers Club, Treasurer, Chris Mooney; Vice President, Sue Strassburger; President, Becky Heinz; and Secretary, Jo Ann Strohmeyer gain valuable experience. Under the supervision of Mrs. Frank and Miss McCuskey, the girls receive encouragement, guidance, and information about teaching as a rewarding career.

Graphic Arts Club

Brother Orban, Tim Roth, Tim O'Leary, Dean Hirstein, Charles Mueller, John Marlin, Herb Eaton, and Dennis Bieniman, look over dummy sheets as they prepare for an upcoming issue of the INSTITUTE. Under Brother Orban's expert guidance the Graphic Arts Club was responsible for composing and printing the INSTITUTE, football programs, prom bids, and many office forms.

Key Club

Under the guidance of their moderator, Fr. Puisis, and the officers, Pres. Randy Irion, Vice Pres. Mike Carroll, Sec. Tim Kelley, and Treas. Ben Bladel, the members of the Key Club have striven mightily and have achieved much in the service to which they have dedicated themselves during the school year. Lawn work, operation of the school bookstore, publication of football and basketball rosters, Christmas decorations, along with active service in the Kiwanis Peanut Sale, and ALSAC drive are but a few of the many Key Club activities during the past year.

Office Crew

The office crew assists Miss Vogel in performing duties around the office, such as answering the phone and running errands. This year's crew consists of Mike Burke, Jim Harms, Jerry Brady, Bob Zinser, Ron Budzinski, Alvin Link, and Frank Radosevich.

Library Club

Vice President Susan Voss, President Susie Peplow, and Secretary-Treasurer Mary Stubbs discuss the many opportunities and experiences they gain as members of the Library Club. The main duties are to assist the head librarian and moderator, Sister Mary Paul, with regular library procedures.

Confraternity Of The Sacred Heart

Admiring a new picture of their patron are the officers of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart: Carole Frasco, President; Maureen McNamara, Vice President; Chris Raya, Treasurer; and Kay Schwindenhammer, Secretary. The purpose of the club is to promote a greater understanding and love of the Sacred Heart in the school and they accomplish this through monthly meetings and discussions.

Junior Classical League

Meeting once a month, the Junior Classical League at the Academy promotes an interest in a cultural study of Latin. This year under the fine guidance of Sister Grace Aurelia and the leadership of Carol Seelig, Aedile; Jeanne Mariani, Praetor; Mary Cisna, Quaestor; Jean Susie, Consul; and Judith Frietsch, Consul; the league showed slides of Rome to their members.

Red Cross

The Red Cross provided a bridge between a national organization and the individual students. By means of posters and membership campaigns the club provided valuable assistance to the local chapter as well as the National Red Cross organization. Under the direction of Mr. Jay Swaringen; President Robert McDaniel; Vice President Charles Garnsey; Secretary James Maubach; and Treasurer Clem Dries the club was silently busy.

Letterman's Club

Treasurer Bob Eaton; President Tom Gilfillan; and Vice President Tob McNamara have done an outstanding job in leading the Letterman's Club. In sponsoring the club's dance and providing referees for the intramural games, the Letterman's Club has taken its place as one of the most active clubs in the school.

Science Club

This year, the Science Club, under the direction of Father Reardon, has broadened its perspective and has become more aware of itself in the school and the community. Members were identified by their distinctive membership patches and placed highly in science project exhibitions. The club also sponsored a series of specialized science lectures given by noted science leaders. Assembled around their own "glass menagerie" are the officers: President, Pat Duggan; Chairman of Activities, Clem Dries; Secretary-Treasurer, Jim Harms; and Vice President, Roy Davis.

Kristy Burk, Vice President of the Peoria Chapter of Future Secretaries of America, types a stencil for the FSA News Bulletin.

Future Secretaries

Business Club

Overlooking Peoria's Progress Center are Business Club officers: President, Dave Broderic; Vice President, John Adams; Secretary, Tim Kennedy; and Treasurer, Jim Kelly. Moderator Ronald Haley has helped mold the club this year into a constructive arm of the Business Department, helping direct many future businessmen toward their goals.

Alumni Boosters

The officers and board members of the Spalding Alumni Boosters are: President, Mr. George Best; Executive Secretary, Mr. Quentin Yerby; Treasurer, Mr. Mike Gray; Vice President, Mr. Jack Bannon; Director, Mr. Bill Beckman; and Director, Mr. Jack Birdoes. In its second year the boosters have sponsored the winter and spring sports banquets and after-school get-togethers.

Quill and Scroll

These charter members of the Journalism Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, are justly proud of their honor. Requirements for membership include scholastic standing in the top third of their class and approval by the national board of Quill and Scroll. Members are, seated: Nancy Powers and Jeanne Peters; Standing: Margie McNamee, Susie Bunce (award), Lynn Caragher, Georgia Novotny, Nancy Gilinsky, Becky Heinz (award), Martha Bruemmer, Nancy Woods, and Mary Jane Eaves (award). Missing from the picture are Pat Manning and Carolyn Voss.

Library Club

President, Duane Knott; Vice President, Jim Harms, and Dave Novy check in books after the semester rush. The members of the Library Club aid Sister Geraldine in providing the students of Spalding with an outstanding reference library.

Debate Club

The Debate Team, under the direction of Mr. Ritschel, turned in a fine performance this year. Participating in many tournaments, they drew excellent ratings. Members are Nancy Schopp, Maureen McLinden, Martha Bruemmer, Kay Schwindenhammer, Kathy Knezovich, Carol Seelig, and Sheryl Laing.

Drama Club

Drama Club officers for this year, Mary Pat Slevin, Secretary; JoLynn Ladd, President; Mary Beth Schlicksup, Treasurer; and Marcia McGinnis, Vice President, are backstage discussing a script for one of their productions.

Public Relations Club

The members of the Public Relations Club have served their school well through their efforts to coordinate public relations work for all school organizations. They are, first row: Ray Huerta, Kathy Myers, Carol Frasco, Tim Gura. Second row: Kitty Kenny, Dave Broderic, Kristy Burk, Pat White, Lea Schaffer, Carol Haddad. Third row: Mary Mueller, Becky Heinz, Connie Prunch, Tom Simon, Margie McNamee, Randy Irion, Mary Jo Lehnhausen, Mike Geskey, Steve Linsley. Fourth row: Caryl Risen, John O'Hearn, Jo Lynn Ladd, Frank Radosevich, Patty Jewell, Susie Peplow, Tim Kelley, Carolyn Voss, Mike McClosky, Kathy Bannon, and Clem Dries.

Home - School

The purpose of the Home-School Association is to provide a link between student affairs and the parents. Committee members are Mr. and Mrs. Leland Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stickelmaier, Mr. and Mrs. John R. McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Blaschek, Mr. and Mrs. William Schaffnit, and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Voorhees.

Maintenance

Maintenance at the Academy is handled very efficiently by Mr. Morse. Here he explains the necessity for having Civil Defense supplies to Kathy Rostetter and Toni Saccenti.

Cafeteria Crew

A.O.L. Alumnae

The main objective of the Academy Alumnae Association is to maintain a spirit of friendship and loyalty among its members toward their Alma Mater. The organization under the able leadership of Miss Diane Pilon, Vice Pres.; Mrs. Ted Stenoish, Pres.; Miss Catherine O'Hearn, Treas.; and Mrs. Robert Hoff, Sec., and the guidance of Sister Mary Victoria, C.S.J., has sponsored such activities as an alumnae-faculty tea and a card party.

A.O.L. Guild

The A.O.L. Guild aided the school in many ways during the '64-'65 school year, including the very successful Magazine Drive. Pres. Mrs. Harry Rose, Corr. Sec. Mrs. J. R. Sloan, Rec. Sec. Mrs. G. B. Geppner, Treas. Mrs. Dale Manning, Vice Pres. Mrs. A. J. Woods.

Kathy Burk, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Future Nurses Club, seems to be asking Sister Petronella of St. Francis Hospital about one of the subjects she'll be taking next year as Sheryl Laing, Secretary, Susie Bunn, Vice President, Mrs. Franseen, Moderator, Kitty Kenny, President, and Colleen Kenny, Treasurer, anxiously scan the pages of the books Sister brought. The members of this organization familiarize themselves with nursing procedures and hospital requirements by touring the hospital and inviting speakers to their meetings.

Future Nurses

Spalding fans excitedly respond to the cheerleader's yell "stand up and holler" as the Irish force an early lead.

Pep Club and G.A.A.

This year the Pep Club became more active. Under the direction of Sister Gerald Marie and Miss Cicciarelli, a card section was organized. It was used at two football games forming an "S" and an "I". The club continued to provide Irish teams with enthusiastic and loyal support. Because of this loyal support, spirit at games was better than ever.

Under the direction of Miss Reno, the G.A.A. provides various sports activities for Academy girls. While offering both entertainment and recreation, G.A.A. develops character and true spirit of sportsmanship.

Inaugurating Spalding's first card section at games this year was one of the many activities of the Pep Club. Leading the club were Sec. Sharon Shea, Pres. Lea Schaffer, Vice-Pres. Pat McDermott, and Treas. Jodie McLinden.

Officers of the G.A.A. for 1965 are Pres. Carol Haddad, Sec. Judy Swigris, Vice-pres. Nan Colwell, and Treas. Pat Palmer.

Homecoming

After weeks of preparation and planning, the 1965 Homecoming festivities began on October 14 with the opening of the class stunt show for the parents. The next evening the show was presented for the students and alumni. The Juniors placed first in class competition with their skit "The Shangri-la Toy Factory." The Seniors finished second with their skit — a cleverly done melodrama, "Little Mary Sunshine." The Sophomores finished third with a spear-throwing skit which was aided greatly by very original scenery. After the stunt show, a spirited pep rally was held on Madison Avenue.

The next evening the Spalding Irish rewarded their loyal fans and alumni with a stirring victory over Woodruff 18-12. Queen Maureen McNamara was crowned and her court presented.

"Irish" girl (Jody McLinden) tries to give "Greaser" Woodrow the brush-off, but all too unsuccessfully.

Mike McKlosky and John Marlin fight to the end in the Sophomores' highly symbolic skit. The Sophomores, for the first time, used flats very effectively as part of their scenery.

After being crowned Homecoming Queen, Maureen McNamara pauses with her escort, George Saal, and her court: Linda McQuellon, Kelly Seiler, Joe Huerta, Kathy Randall, Marcia Tuerk, and Jim Harms.

Spirit is at an all time high among all Irishmen as they enthusiastically cheer for their team at the Homecoming pep rally.

This seemingly peaceful scene exploded as the uniquely decorated cars "revved" up their motors and horns. With a gust of noise the parade proceeded to the stadium to watch the Homecoming game.

The Irish came out on the "top of the heap" as they overcame the Woodruff Warriors in an 18-12 victory.

Dance

On Saturday morning bleary - eyed Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors descended on Spalding Cafeteria to begin preparations for the climax of the entire celebration — the Homecoming Dance. Most of the students stayed late into the afternoon working on decorations; and as the clock struck six o'clock, everything was in readiness.

The highlight of the colorful and exciting dance was the crowning of Queen Maureen McNamara. The evening slipped by and soon Homecoming 1965 was over. All that remained were the decorations to clean up, programs to be saved, and memories to be cherished forever.

Sophomores busily worked together to create an entrance which lent mystery and atmosphere to homecoming decorations.

Maureen McNamara smiles happily as Spalding Student Council President, Jim Kelly, crowns her Queen of the 1965 Homecoming.

The climax of the Homecoming was enjoyed by these senior couples at the dance.

Junior boys pitch in to turn the Youth Center into a winning masterpiece of beauty.

Attendants

Mary Jo Lehnhausen graciously offers Sister Thomas Marie a cup of tea from the Senior table at the Silver Tea. Others enjoying the cookies, mints, and punch are Jeanne Shank, Mrs. Charles Shank, Maureen McNamara, Mrs. Cyril McNamara, Katie McVeain, Mrs. Donald McVeain and Mrs. Robert Lehnhausen.

Enjoying their dinner at the Lay Advisory Board Recognition Banquet are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Vonachen, Reverend Francis P. White, the Most Reverend John B. Franz, Sister Thomas Marie, Rt. Reverend Monsignor J. B. Riedy, Sister Mary Geraldine, and Reverend John J. Sweeney.

Sister Mary Agnetta and Sister Mary Timothy look eagerly at the punch being poured as they move through the line at the Teacher Appreciation Day Tea.

Banquets and Teas

The Academy and Spalding annually honor various organizations and occasions with banquets and teas. The Academy sponsors the Father-Daughter and Mother-Daughter Banquets. The Academy Guild sponsors the Silver Tea. The Academy and Spalding Student Councils joined with Bergan to sponsor a Faculty Appreciation Tea. Spalding also sponsors the Football and Cross Country Banquets and Spring Sports Banquet to honor their athletes and others who have served their school. Such social gatherings give parents a chance to participate in school-sponsored activities and develop stronger parent - teacher relationships.

Ann Landers proved her knowledge and understanding of today's youth in her address to the students of Spalding and the Academy.

A representative from the Bell Telephone Company gives an interesting demonstration of the human body as a conductor of sound.

The Chrysler Corporation sponsored one of this year's most entertaining assemblies featuring Thurlow Spurr and the Spurlows. This fine group presented enjoyable music and comedy, along with some sensible advice to the students of Spalding and the Academy.

Assemblies

Not merely diversions from the daily routine of studies, assemblies serve to supplement total education. Cultural enlightenment, exciting entertainment, and a visiting columnist with some sensible advice highlighted the year's assemblies.

Mary Mueller and Jerry Worrick, Cindy Stanard and Randy Irion, and Kathy Bannon and Pat White enjoy the Roman atmosphere at the annual Key Club Dance.

Highlighted by beautiful decorations and an enchanting yuletide atmosphere, the Crystal Ball proved to be a great success again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Finn, Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Schwab, and Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Murray enjoy a chat with Father Leonard Puisis as they chaperone the Homecoming Dance.

Evenings To Remember

Thoughts of this year's dances will linger in the memories of Spalding and Academy students. The Academy Student Council sponsored the Barn Dance on Halloween. This dance, a vice-versa, was perhaps one of the most successful of the year. The Crystal Ball was the next dance. Sponsored by Spalding's Student Council, this dance was notable for its beautiful decorations and excellent orchestra. The Key Club Dance was held on Lincoln's birthday. The theme of this year's dance was "A Roman Holiday."

Thanks to the outstanding work and long hours spent by Academy and Spalding students in preparations, the dances held this year were bigger and better than ever.

David Radosevich, Eileen Best, Sonja Cisna, and Dennis Day take time out to admire the "ghostly" decorations at the Halloween Dance.

"And the Word was God." During the Academy retreat, Father Brendan McMullin delivers one of his powerful addresses on the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity.

Janice Leibel, Kathy Bannon, and Kathy Best discuss the recently concluded Day of Recollection with Father Collins.

Father Ray Walter emphasizes the necessity for "complete dedication in all aspects of life," during the course of one of his conferences.

Spiritual Inspiration

Included in the most memorable of the many events held throughout the year would be the two retreats which took place at the Academy and Spalding. Both Father Ray Walter, C.S.S.R., and Father Brendan McMullin, O.P., delivered inspiring addresses, urging the students of both schools to greater dedication to Christ.

Mike Sierra takes advantage of the time between conferences to seek advice from Father Walter.

Connie Prunch with a 4.9786 grade average has been named Valedictorian of the 1965 senior class of the Academy. She was followed closely by Carolyn Voss with a 4.9757 average. Both girls have provided outstanding leadership not only on the academic plane but also in religious and extra-curricular fields.

This year's Valedictorian, Walter Linsley, attained top honors with a 4.921 average. Salutatorian, James Kelly, maintained a grade average of 4.868 through four years. Since both Walter and Jim participated in many school activities, their feats are even more impressive.

Promising Seniors

The world is beset by many dangerous ideologies and philosophies. It is the duty of all good education to provide the world with men and women who are filled with truth and who are prepared to deal with these dangers. The young men and women pictured here represent the hope that through continued academic achievement and excellence, truth may be brought to the whole world, thus opening avenues for universal brotherhood and sincere cooperation among the peoples of the world.

Recognition Rewards Initiative

In order to encourage the student to do well in his or her studies, certain rewards are given. The rewards for academic achievement are certainly more than just certificates or medals. However, it is necessary that those who have excelled in their studies during the year be recognized. The students pictured on these pages have distinguished themselves as being the top scholars in their respective classes.

Dick Beltramini and Carlos Puig proved to be the scholastic leaders of the class of '67 for the first semester boasting "A" averages.

These smiling sophomores found their names on the first honor roll. They are: Pat O'Brien, Sue Wilson, Cindy Maher, Mary Kay Yock, and Mary Stubbs.

The first semester "A" Honor Roll shows that these two freshmen, Tom Raya and Mike Machens, have made a good scholastic start at Spalding.

Freshmen Janice Gillett, Joan Novotny, Mary Beth Snaadt, Marcia DuPage, Margaret Temboriurs, Elle Nelson, and Barb Baker are justly proud of making the "A" Honor Roll for the first semester.

"You lack the season of all nature— sleep," says Lady Macbeth (Connie Prunch) as she tries vainly to console Macbeth (Eric Blanc) after his visit to the witches.

Banquo (Mike Carroll) and Angus (Jim Ciccia-relli) announce the news of the King's death to his stunned son, Malcom (Pat White).

Responsible for the fine lighting and props used during "Macbeth" were Bob May, Jim Burson, Steve Ihnken, Terry Pitzen, and Tom Weinzerl.

The Tragedy of Macbeth

In keeping with the Quadricentennial of the birth of William Shakespeare, the Senior Class of Spalding Institute, with able support from girls of the Academy of Our Lady, presented the Tragedy of Macbeth.

Eric Blanc expertly played the part of Macbeth, while Connie Prunch performed as brilliantly in her role as Lady Macbeth. Their superb performances were supplemented by the excellent acting of the entire cast.

Unlike most presentations of Shakespeare, this play had very simple and subtle costumes and scenery. This was done in order to "place emphasis on the beauty of the word."

Through excellent directing from Brother Donald Houde, C.S.V., and Father George Auger, C.S.V., and a great amount of effort on the part of the cast, the three performances of Macbeth were truly powerful experiences in good drama for all who viewed them.

The student directors, Frank Radosevich and Dan Powell, await their directions from Brother Houde before the play begins.

Sharon (Chris Rose) sings "How Are Things in Glocca Morra" reminiscing with her father Finian McLonergan (Doug Smith).

Finian's Rainbow

The whimsical musical Finian's Rainbow was the result of the combined efforts of the Academy and Spalding. The forceful directing of Sister Ellen James, Mr. Gene Farris, and Mr. Michael Ritschel, coupled with the symbolic setting designed by Brother Donald Houde and the masterful choreography of Mrs. June Koss fused to form a truly superb performance. On November 20, 21, and 22, after months of long, arduous labor on the part of all concerned, Finian's was presented to the public.

"Lead me to him!" Finian becomes very brave about the villian who has stolen his leprechaun gold when he hears that the culprit is smaller than he is.

Mr. Ritschel arranges actors during a hectic rehearsal of "Finian's" for the opening song, "Look To the Rainbow."

On Stage

Finian culminates his conniving efforts to match his daughter Sharon with Woody Mahoney by the announcement that she is betrothed to another man — who turns out to be Woody himself.

Finian's Rainbow was the medium of discovering much hidden talent among the students of both schools. The combined choruses of the Academy and Spalding were called upon for musical talent and the entire student bodies of both schools provided dramatists. Star vocalists were Chris Rose as Sharon McLonergan, Ray Bill as Woody Mahoney, and Doug Smith as Finian McLonergan. Among supporting vocalists were Jan Armstrong, Mary Ann Beaupre, and Steve Heinz. Tim Gura shone in his role as Senator Billboard Rawkins, and Mike Carroll also presented a fine performance as Buzz Collins.

The Dentinos, Verne and Vernon, challenge Doug Smith as Finian to a contest of dancing ability after his degrading remarks on their talent.

In one of "Finian's" most beautiful scenes, Jan Armstrong and the Girls' Chorus sing the song of the sharecroppers — "Necessity."

Woody (Ray Bill) arrives just in time to pay back Buzz (Mike Carroll) for the mortgage on his sister's house only to find out that fees have raised the mortgage beyond his ability to pay.

Backstage

Behind-the-scenes activity makes or breaks a production like Finian's Rainbow. The careful handling of details makes a show polished, and this is the real trait which raises a show from amateur to professional status. Costumes handled by Sister David Louise and the girls of the Academy were coordinated with the stage set up by Brother Houde and his crew. Sister Frances Lawrence was in charge of publicity.

"Shuffle boy, shuffle," says Buzz (Mike Carroll) to the serving boy, as Senator Billboard Rawkins (Tim Gura) pleads for his mint julip.

"Ce Soir Toujours"

The Junior-Senior Prom "Ce Soir Toujours" was held at the Bradley Student Center Ballroom on May 7. Surely, this affair is one which we will always remember.

Denise Robb, George Saal, Michele McMorrow, Brad Monroe, Jody McLinden, and Mike Kelly enjoy the music of Dee Henricks and his Orchestra.

The highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student of the Academy of Our Lady by her classmates is that of Academy Girl. One senior is chosen for this position because she has, in the opinion of her fellow students and the faculty, attained that goal for which we are all striving — Christian womanhood. Constance Prunch has dedicated herself during her four years at the Academy to the fulfillment of her scholastic, moral, and spiritual potentials. She has lived up to the high ideals of her faith and has developed her character, personality, and intellect to a high degree.

Her scholastic achievements fill us with zeal and determination, and her example of service to others makes us conscious of the importance of dedication in our lives. In the estimation of her fellow classmates, Connie has been a true example of leadership, loyalty, and cooperation. For her, the attributes of an Academy girl are not just an ideal, but a reality.

Academy Girl

Man Of The Year

When Spalding's Senior Class chooses its Man of the Year, the judging becomes very objective. The members of the class look for high motives of scholarship, leadership, and moral integrity in the man to whom they award this honor. This year's Man of the Year, Jim Kelly, is eminently qualified to lead us in all these endeavors. Jim has devoted himself for four years to true scholarship and added to this a full life of service to his fellow students.

In a truly unique way, Jim has entered the life of a student and set an example that all his fellow classmates would like to follow. His efforts in scholastic life serve as a spur to our efforts in this field, and the moral courage he displays leads us to greater consideration of the most important aspects of our lives. Jim Kelly is an admirable person, but even more important, he is a real person — one whom we can appreciate and follow as a truly Christian leader.

The Cross Country Team Matures

The Spalding harriers lived up to the school's "Fighting Irish" tradition, finishing fifth in one of the toughest conferences in the state in only their second year of competition. Through many hours of pain and sweat, the team compiled a 2-5 record in dual meets. The outlook for next year looks very bright, for Coach Brookhart loses only three lettermen while having five returning, along with many strong J. V. runners.

Top runners Jim McMahon and Tom Eads, both seniors, run wind sprints to toughen up for the longer distances.

Grimacing with pain, Mike Heinz tenses his whole body for the final yards of the two-mile course as he leads the pack to the tape.

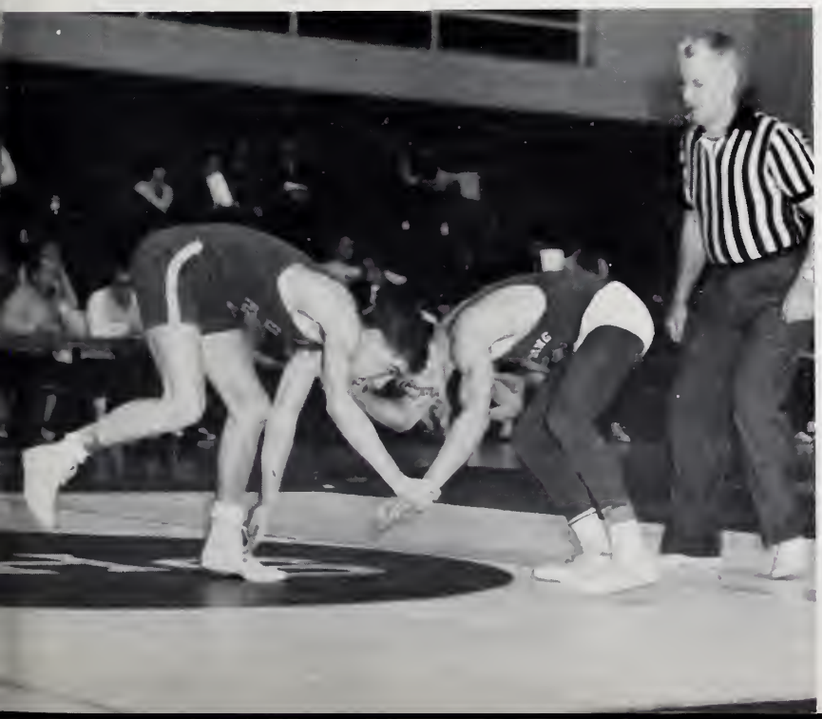
Al Gillett finds the going rough as he is forced to try a reverse against Richwoods' Errol Flynn.



Wrestlers Accent Youth.

Blessed with an abundance of promising sophomores and freshmen to back up seasoned veterans Gil Lonteen, Terry Trantina, Al Gillett and Dave Anzaldua, the 1964-65 wrestlers bettered their first year record. They turned the trick and beat Manual this year, paving the way to a seventh place finish in the conference grappling standings.

Shifting his weight in an effort to down a Red Raider, Terry Trantina breaks free of a hold.

Enthusiastic Cheerleaders Spark Student Spirit

Providing enthusiastic leadership in guiding the Spalding boys to victory after victory were these dynamic Academy cheerleaders: Bonnie Bailey, Joan Beckman, Mary Kay Davis, Sharon Meagher, Colleen McAllister, Mary Morrow, and Michele McMorrow. Whether on the football field or the basketball court, these energetic girls aroused Spalding's many loyal fans to give whole-hearted support to their team. Each one of them spent many hours in preparation for the games and they saw the results of their labor in the over-whelming response of the fans. Colleen McAllister, as captain of the Varsity Cheerleaders, worked successfully to bring about greater loyalty, vigor, and sportsmanship.

Sophomore cheerleaders: Bernie Markey, Linda Vittitow, Mary Galvin, Mary Ann Beaupre, Nancy Haasis, and Alice Brophy led their team and all the loyal fans to win the Sophomore Mid-State Eight Conference which ended a season filled with cheers and victories.

Leading the cheers at the games this year were the varsity cheerleaders: Sharon Meagher, Mary Kay Davis, Mary Morrow, Bonnie Bailey, Joan Beckman, Captain Colleen McAllister, and Michele McMorrow.

Hustle and Desire

Finding himself all alone on the sidelines, Mike Geskey pumps a jump shot against Central.

Outhustling the entire Richwoods team, Jim Markoski snares a rebound from the hands of the Knights' Mark Edwards.

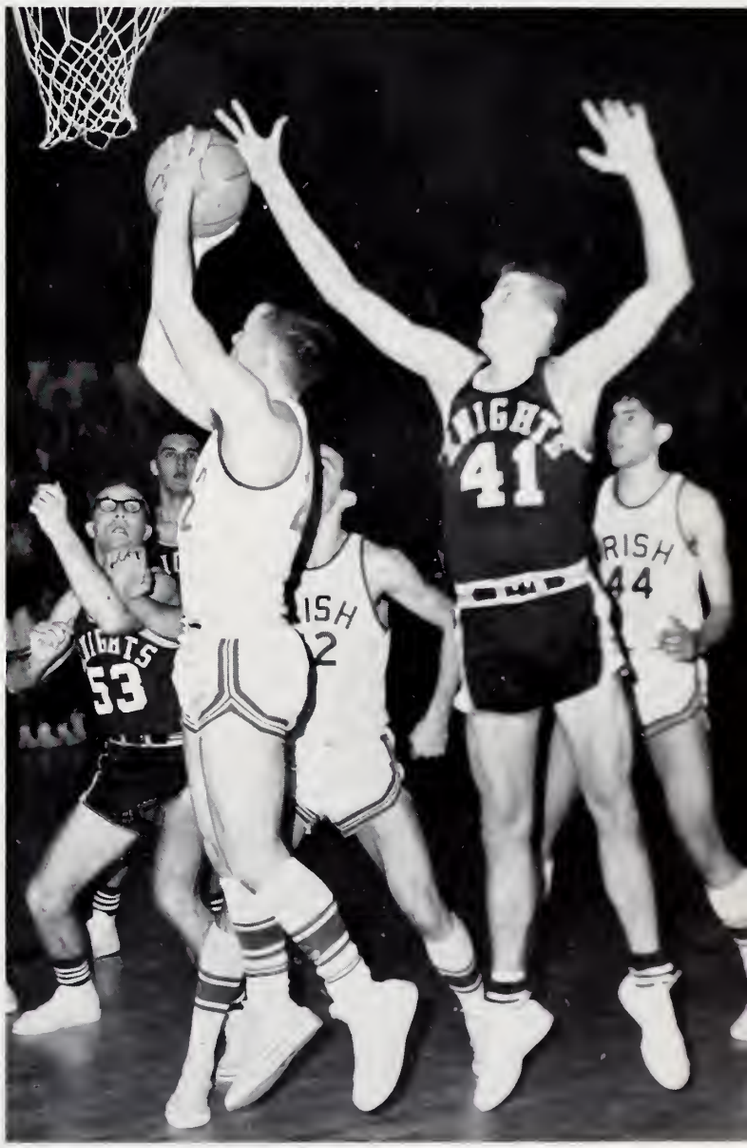
Tim Shea sweeps past a lone Knight to pop the roundball through the hoop.

Even two Richwoods defenders fail to stop Mike Geskey from tipping in two points as Tom Lintz scoots in to help.

Keynote Irish Season

The 1964 - 65 Spalding basketball team was a "Never-say-die" unit. Whether they played slowdown ball or the run-and-shoot brand, the Irish roundballers earned every point they got.

The team was highlighted by a tall and speedy core of juniors: big John Miller, leapin' Tim Shea, and backcourt aces Mike Kelly and Dave Breese. Along with senior Mike Geskey and the rest of the squad, they provided Spalding fans with many thrills throughout the season.



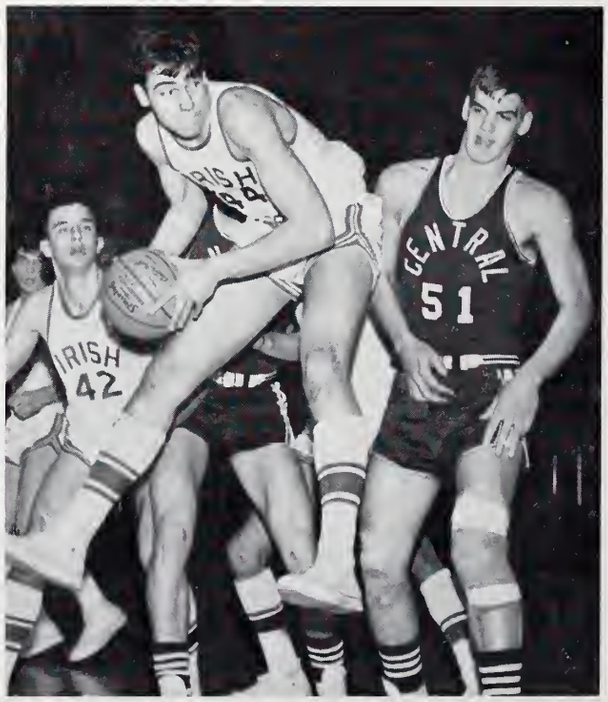
With the aid of screens by Shea and John Miller, Dave Breese aims one homeward past the outstretched hand of a desperate Knight.

"Go, Irish, Go!" chants the crowd as Mike Kelly, with Dave Breese's help, brings the ball right through Pekin's great pair of guards.

The Fans Cry, "Go, Irish, Go!"

The Irish were 6-17 on the season, deadlocking East Peoria for sixth place in the Mid-State Eight with a 3-11 conference mark. After surprising previously undefeated Maine South in the Rockford Holiday Classic Tournament, the Irish were eliminated by Rockford Auburn and later garnered fourth place in another playoff, the St. Bede's Tournament.

Miller outmuscles Central's Gulley to clear a big rebound before Tim Shea's very eyes.



Kelly drives all the way and lays one up against Central as John Miller looks on.

Senior Standouts

Despite a poor 6-17 record, the Spalding Irish showed a spirit and determination which more than made up for the large number of losses.

The great attitude and spirit of the team were due in large part to the leadership and example which these senior members of the basbetball team gave. Though their efforts did not produce a great number of victories, they left a legacy of spirit and desire not soon to be outdone.

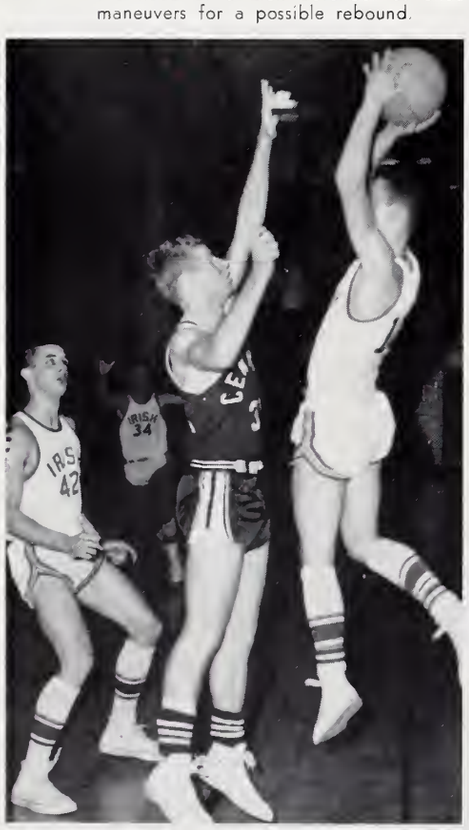
Tom Lintz zeroes in on the basket over the head of a Lion defender as Shea maneuvers for a possible rebound.



John Miller and Mike Geskey stretch every muscle in an effort to pull down the rebound of a missed Central shot.

The '64-'65 Sophs Brighten Future Prospects.

This year the Irish sophomores forged a fantastic 21-3 season's record. They won the Mid-State Eight Sophomore championship with a 12-2 standard and captured the Pekin Sophomore tournament by whipping the host Chinks, who were the runner-up for conference honors.

Tall John Irving and Conrad Brooks bound high to retrieve a rebound in Spalding's win over Pekin that clinched the conference sophomore title.

Terry Renard begins the last leg of the 880 yd. relay as he takes the baton from Bill Schaffnit.

Showing the effects of the grueling 440 yd. run, Jim Markoski breaks the tape well ahead of the rest of the "pack."

Ken Happach soars over the bar as he high jumps 5' 5".

The blistering speed and exacting physical requirements of the 100 yd. dash are seen in Terry Renard's face as he streaks to the finish line in 10.2.

Muscles tense, heads raise in expectation as the runners await the gun that will signal the beginning of the 440 yd. dash.

Speed Highlights Track Season

Spalding's track season began this year in wet, sloppy weather. With returning lettermen, Jim Markoski, Peter Joseph, Terry Renard, Bill Schaffnit, and Ken Happach providing experience, and with the addition of a group of promising sophomores and juniors the track season prospects look bright.

Spalding seems to be strongest this year in the running events where Jim Markoski, Terry Renard, Bill Schaffnit and Jack McNamee assure many valuable points. Combined with speed is growing strength in field events. This combination of speed and strength promises another successful season.

Larry Schmitt displays perfect pitching form as he prepares to "fog" one across the plate.

The batter is as good as out as Bob (Dog) Beckman makes a perfect pickup at third base.

"Play Ball"

Having just begun a rain plagued race for the Mid-State Eight title, the Irish held a 3-4 record. With experienced players such as Tom McNamara, Jim Kelly, Tom Gilfillan, and Gerry Tigue providing a strong nucleus, the Irish appear headed toward another successful season.

Concentration seems to be the word that describes Larry Schmitt as he crouches low, waiting for the pitcher's delivery.

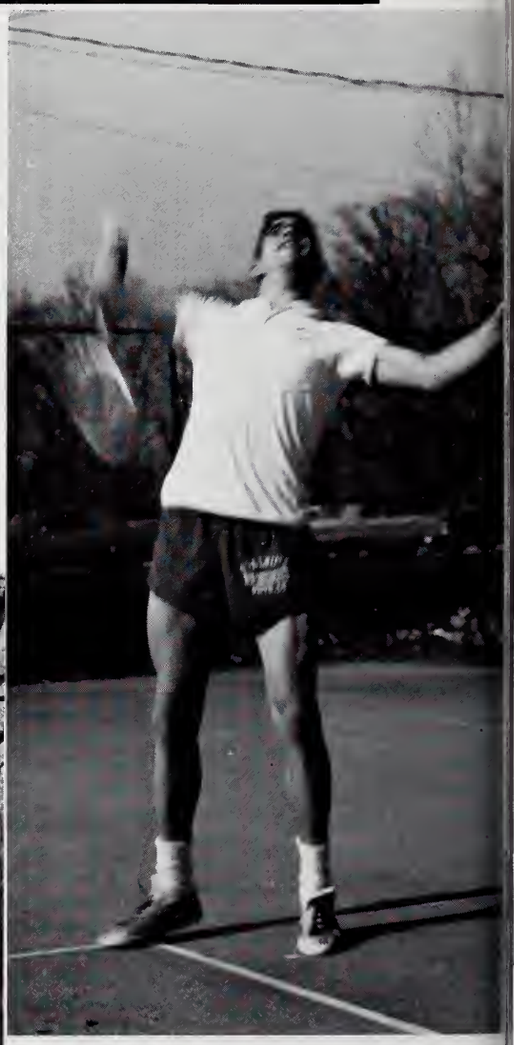
Netters Gain Stature

With returning lettermen Bob Willi, Mike Geppner, and Mike Burke providing a solid nucleus, this year's tennis season promises to be highly successful. The tennis team, coached by Mr. Barrie Shave, will have to build on this nucleus with a generally inexperienced, but promising group of young players. With a few breaks and a lot of determination on the part of the players, this year's team should easily place among the first four teams of the conference.

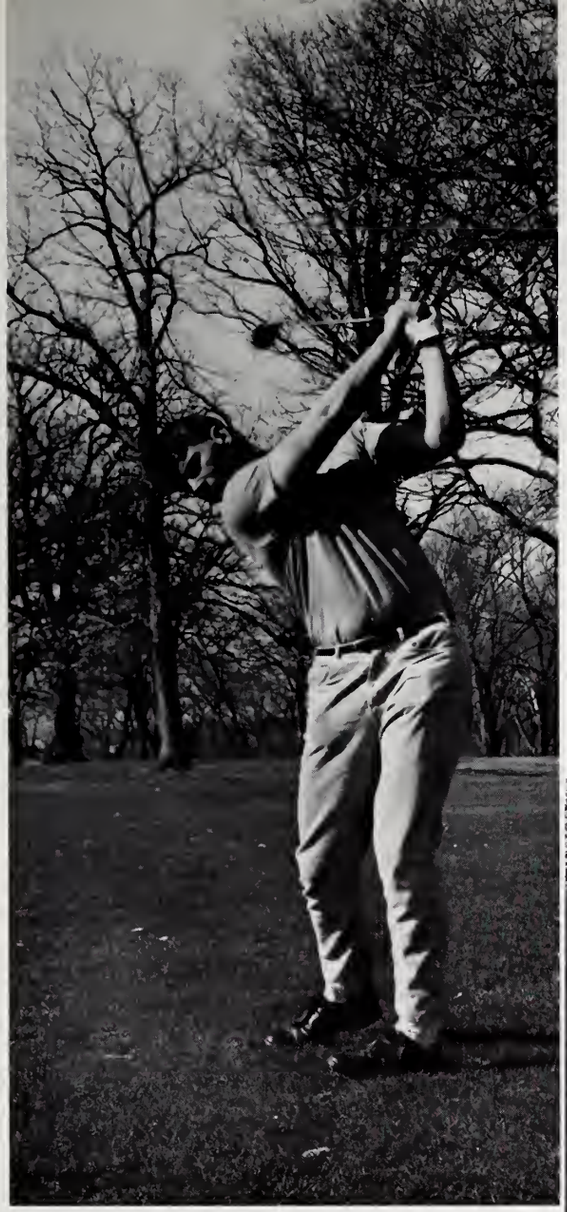


Every muscle strains as Bob Willi serves up a blistering volley.

Mike Geppner, first man on the '65 tennis team, deftly stradles the back line as he returns a shot that nets him a victory.

Golf Season Approached Optimistically

Under the capable direction of Mr. Jolly, the 1965 golf team hopes to take the last big step from a second place finish last year to the conference championship this year. With four returning seniors and with the aid of some talented juniors the prospects for that elusive championship seem bright.



Tom Murray connects and drives the ball 250 yards straight down the fairway.

Mike Baumgardner uses "pitch and run" tactics as he approaches the 18th green.

Bowling Club

The bowling club under the leadership of Brother Orban and Fr. Cooper continued to grow. This year's club had a larger number of members than any previous year's. Blessed with a large number of participating students and keen competition between teams the bowling club has been able to realize its goals, to provide athletic minded students with a healthful outlet.

Secretary Tom Waldorf, Brother Orban and President Fred Grawey look over the selection of trophies for the bowling team banquet.

The Senior Division intramural basketball champs are: sitting, Jack Fulton, Hank Broeren, Don Vespa, and Gordan Gilamen. Standing, Robert Franken, Mick O'Donnell, Mike Donnelly.

Led by senior standout Nancy Woods, these girls captured the Intramural basketball championship. They are kneeling, Mickey O'Grady, Nancy Woods, Sharon Judd, Judy Robinson. Standing, Karen Howe, Chris Raya, Rosa Banys, Sharon Kellogg, and Barb Bannister.

Intramural Volleyball champions are: kneeling, Mary Ann Nelson, Carole Frasco, Barb Bannister. Standing, Chris Mooney, Alice Brophy, Donna Howe, and Carol Berg.

Intramurals

The intramural programs at Spalding and the Academy again proved to be highly successful. What the participating students lacked in talent, they made up for with hustle, determination and a fighting spirit. Instilling this spirt of keen competition tempered with good sportmanship is the purpose of any good intramural program. If this is accomplished as it is at Spalding and the Academy, the program can be classified as a success.

G.A.A.

The Girls Athletic Association has as its purpose the promotion of intramural activities among Academy students. The many facets of G.A.A. activities have provided Academy girls with hours of enjoyment while offerings many opportunities for physical fitness. The G.A.A. sponsors volleyball, basketball, a weekend camping trip, and the annual Senior All-Star basketball game.

"Get it, get it"! says Mary Beth Snaadt as Becky Jones and Sharon McIntyre both jump for the ball. Cheryl McCraith and Mary Jean Schmitt wait to assist.

"Hockey one, hockey two, counts Toni Gicabazi as Sharon Welch, Beth Aitken, Deanna Dunn, and Cheryl Leible anxiously await the face off which will begin the hockey game.

Fun and Fitness

Marty Sierra struggles with her opponent to get the rebound.

A.O.L. archers, Ellie Walloch, Chris Raya, Marcia McGinnis, and Terry Peterson stand steady as they practice to perfect their aim.

Sister Mary Timothy points out an interesting aspect of one of the projects to Father Reardon, Sister Ellen James, Father Foster, and Sister Gerald Marie as they serve as judges at the Academy Science Fair.

One in Spirit

Although Spalding Institute and the Academy of Our Lady are separate schools, they are one in spirit. This spirit of unity is seen in all phases of school life. In studies, activities, religious undertakings, and social events, the students of Spalding and the Academy are indeed one.

The unity between the students is something which has long been a great tradition. As a result of this unity, the students of Spalding and the Academy have achieved a greater sense of cooperation and have developed a lasting loyalty to their schools. It is the loyalty to each other and to their respective schools that is exemplified in the class section of this book.

"Now if you take 'Life', 'America', and 'Jubilee', and I take 'Reader's Digest', 'Sign', and 'The Poultryman's Journal', we can share Rover here," Barb Lyng promises to Sandra Kinney as Maureen McLinden, Sheryl Laing, and Karen Densburger make plans of their own.

Juniors

Isn't this great concentration, intense dedication to learning, superb effort? No, the effects of a "wild" weekend have finally caught up with Skip Morris in the Spanish lab.

business

For many years in many lands, we have boasted of the virtues of the market place under free competitive enterprise, of America's ability to compete and sell, of the vitality of our system in keeping abreast with the times. Our strength in the struggle for freedom depends on the strength of our economic and our social progress."

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands. But like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides, and following them you will reach your destiny.

Carl Schurz, 1859

Faith is a fine invention, faith such as that which the sailor has in ships and stars to take him safely along his watery course. Faith and Ideals go abreast in mutual glee. And no finer weapons can you possess to safely transverse this enchanted earth. Have faith in yourself, your country, your fellowman, and faith in the ideals for which they all stand. We at Carsons encourage you to contribute to the upward march of American life, and forever hold dear the ideals of our great and free land.

At Carsons we're always interested in progressive young men and women. Feel free to visit our Personnel Office.

Our Inheritance

Our ancestors left many good things to America's youth . . . a country of abundance to live in . . . full opportunity to achieve . . . and the wise guidance of great Americans of the past. These leaders knew that a nation thrives best when its people are independent—free to work and dream—alone, or with others who share their aims. As Abraham Lincoln put it, "In all that the people can individually do for themselves, government ought not to interfere." This principle of independence, or free enterprise, has made America a land of plenty. It must be guarded continually, if the future is to bring still greater progress and increasing strength.

"GOOD FOODS"

Your next step may be worth $148,000 to you

You've just received your high school diploma, and now you're at a crossroad. What will it be next . . . a college education, or a job?

Your next step may be worth $148,000!

A college graduate can expect to earn an average of $9,129 annually between the ages of 25 and 65. That's $365,000 in 40 years.

On the other hand, the man whose formal education stops at high school will earn $5,433 a year, or $217,000 in 40 years. Thus the difference—$148,000—is the amount a college education could be worth during the most productive years of your life.

These are only average figures. But they point out how valuable a college education could be to your earning power.

That extra income could mean a better home for you . . . a complete education for your children . . . a fuller, more rewarding life for you and your future family.

And a college education can help you achieve rewards which may be even more significant than a higher income. You may gain a deeper understanding of people and history . . . and possibly a sharpened ability to appreciate the complex world around us.

The experience of millions of people proves education is an investment in the future which will return many advantages. The decision is up to you. What will your next step be?

APPRECIATION

The members of the 1965 SUMMA Staff of the Academy and Spalding wish to acknowledge their sincere gratitude to all who have contributed so freely of their time and talent. We wish particularly to thank:

ENCOURAGEMENT:

The faculty for their graciousness in giving of their time and advice in setting up equipment for pictures in their departments;

The students for their whole-hearted support and cooperation;

Our patrons and advertisers for their financial assistance;

PLANNING AND ADVICE:

Reverend Leo Cooper, C.S.V., and Sister Thomas Maureen, C.S.J., our faculty advisors, without whose guidance this book could not be a reality;

Mr. J. L. Sronce, yearbook consultant for the Peoria Engraving Co., who has given us constant help and advice throughout the year;

PICTURES:

Mr. Eugene Voss of Fabry Studios, who gave many hours taking pictures for our division pages, faculty, and many group pictures, and who gave invaluable advice to student photographers;

Mr. Dan Woodley of Fabry Studios for the Academy and Spalding senior pictures;

Mr. Ron Garimoni for the individual pictures of the football team;

The Peoria JOURNAL-STAR;

Graphic Arts Club, pictures;

Reverend Robert Hughes, use of Spalding gym and C.Y.C.;

Mr. Roger Ingle, underclassmen pictures;

ENGRAVING: Peoria Engraving Co.;

PRINTING: Mr. Richard Finfgeld, Mr. Jim Henderson, and the Staff of the Henry News-Republican;

COVERS: Mr. William Snell, personal cover counselor for S. K. Smith Co., Chicago, Ill.

BINDING: Mr. Henry A. Pfisterer of the Peoria Book Bindery.
